Jesus got into a boat and sat down, and the whole crowd stood along the shore. And He said...

One day, a  went out to plant in his fields. As the  scattered the , some  fell on the path. Some  came and ate the . Some  fell on the  where there was little dirt for them to grow. The  sprouted right away but when the  rose, they withered away because they had no roots. Some  fell among , which grew up and choked the plants. But some  fell on soft and rich , started to  and produced plenty of fruit.

Meaning of this parable (Matthew 13:1-23)

Seeds

God's word

The seeds on the path -
The person doesn't understand the God's word and Satan snatches away

The seeds among the rocks-
The person receives the message of kingdom with joy, but his faith doesn't grow as he is not rooted himself in Christ. When troubles come, he walks away from what he heard

Caring other things

The seeds among thorns -
The person hears the word, but his worries or desires of other things are more than following Christ. So his faith withers.

Grounds

Thorns

Person's heart

The seeds on good soil -
The person understands God's word and his faith grows and multiple in Christ.

Living in the kingdom of God is full of hope, promises and power. Jesus wants you to be fruitful in Him.

Can you write the God's word on the seed that you believe in your heart.
(Examples ; Jesus loves me, Jesus heals....)
